

The Bread of Life (Jn. 6:28-40)

Today's message is entitled the bread of life. The answer to your life is for you to eat and hold to the bread of life everyday. Then everything will be concluded. It is because God will conclude all things for you. There is nothing for you to be concerned about. All you have to do is eat the bread of life everyday then you will live. You will live forevermore not only that you will be able to live today. All those who eat this bread of life will live and be saved. For God's promise is unchanging. Everything depends on whether you eat this bread of life or not. That is why life is very simple. Before you put in your effort and strength may you do this first. That is why even today you must follow after the word. Some may question why my life is not taking place. You may have colourless questions on why you are suffering and why you are not receiving answers from God. God has given you a simple answer. The cause to all is Satan and the answer is Christ. It may seem so ordinary yet inside the word contains the mystery of God. When you come to realize it you come to see how tremendous this mystery is. If you just simply end with listening to it, it may seem like ordinary words. For those who have deeply experienced this, we call them the witnesses. The one who holds to this as the answer is the one who possesses it. How can this all take place? That start is confessing of Christ. It is for you to hold onto it as your covenant. Of course you know it very well. If it's not working out for you, may you confess it everyday. God has promised that one day it will be answered, that is why one day it will hit your heart. It is truly a difference between you knowing it and you holding to it as your covenant. You yearn to confess it even more and you are pleased with it. Each time you confess it you gain strength. Automatically you will be able to apply it to your life. Through that miracles will arise. This is the promise of the Bible. Isn't life so simple that is why you must live your life holding to this. There is no other answer that is contained within the world. This is the complete answer. When you confess of it rightfully, the answer will be given to you. When the evidence is given to you your spiritual eyes will gradually be opened. That is how you will come to discover it even more. Then you will be able to go in the depths of it. You will be able to make the deep confession before God. When you hold to the covenant you will be able to deeply hold to the covenant. You have no choice but to do only. Then you will be able to have the sure power and authority from God. I'm not merely saying these words to you. If you continue it you will be able to deeply confess of Christ. You will be able to deeply enjoy and receive tremendous spiritual strength. Naturally, you will be able to stake your life to it and it will take place in your life. You will be able to come to see the importance of this in your life. You may do all the things of the world yet you must hold to this as your fundamental. It's not by just simply listening to the word, receiving grace, and ending it from there. You will be able to hold to the word as the covenant. You will be able to hold onto the word of the the bread of life as your covenant. Rightfully so you will follow it. You will be able to acknowledge it and place it within your heart. When you follow after the word it is the same as when the Israelites followed after the ark of the covenant when they crossed the Jordan river. It is because God tells them to follow it from afar. God told the Israelites that from afar you must be able to see the ark of the covenant and follow after it. When you fundamentally enjoy Christ it will be edited within your life. When you specifically follow after the word it will be edited, planned, and designed to your life. It is God who edits your life with His word. However God has given you the hope so that you are able to hold to His word and edit that within your life. So what must you do? How must you give worship today? You must be able to hold to the covenant as you give worship. Worship that does not hold to the covenant is all in vain. In reality it is a waste of time. Today, may you firmly hold to the covenant as you give worship. May you hold to Jesus Christ. You must hold to the filling of the Holy Spirit as the covenant. You must be able to hold onto binding the forces of darkness and mobilizing His heavenly host. Even today you must hold onto the 237 nations, healing, and summit as the covenant. Today you must hold to the remnants, multi-ethnic, and mission as your covenant. We take these words so lightly yet for God he has hidden His mystery behind this. You have come to realize that has come inside of your heart then the person will live a life of miracles. For those who hold to the covenant and give worship is called building the altar before God. May the blessing be upon you to receive the important word of God to which you will be victorious and conquer all things.

1. The Bread of Life

Today the people questioned Jesus. Jesus said the work of God is believing in Him who has sent Him. It's not even to that extent this is the fundamental and the start. They say "what sign do you do, that we may see and believe you? What work do you perform?" Then Jesus replies to them saying, "He gave them bread from heaven to eat". "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger and whoever believes in me shall never thirst". In other words the manna was fake. Manna was only given to signify Christ. That is why Jesus says I am the true bread. He is the bread of life that contains life. In today's bible passage it speaks about the five loaves and two fish. The crowds saw the miracles of what Jesus had done and came to see that as long as they follow after Him their life will be completely finished. Yet, Jesus speaks to them that the true bread of life has been given from above. In verse 32 it says, "but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven." In verse 33 it says, "for the bread of God he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world". Jesus states to them that they are completely different from the manna they refunded in the wilderness. It says in verse 35, "Jesus said to them, I am the Bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger and whoever believes in me shall never thirst." This signifies that he is the eternal Bread of Life.

He is the spiritual bread to which they shall not hunger nor shall they thirst. That is why it would only take place for those who believe this is the spiritual bread. Faith, it's very mysterious. We just simply believe in him, but yet it is very difficult for us to explain to others. Of course, we do have a lot of evidence of faith that God has given to us, but it's so difficult for us to explain what it is. Faith doesn't take place according to your heart. That is why "whoever comes to me shall not hunger." It is because they are the ones that believe in him. "Whoever believes in me shall never thirst." It is truly a precious word. This will actually take place. It means that they will never face hunger or thirst. It's the same even now, for those who believe in him will all be like this. Within the physical sense, they will not hunger and in the physical sense, they will never thirst. In the spiritual and physical aspects, they shall never hunger. This will not only take place in heaven but will also take place now. That way is for you to hold onto Christ and to confess and enjoy Christ. In verse 36, "But I said to you that you have seen me and yet you do not believe." They must believe in him, but yet they do not. In verse 37, "All that the Father gives me will come to me and whoever comes to me I will never cast out." How thankful are we for that? God has planned our salvation to which God has given us Christ. Naturally, we have no choice but to have faith in Christ. God said that he would never cast out anyone. The Lord says that he will accept anyone who God has planned to receive salvation. He says that he will never cast out a single soul nor will he ever fail. It is truly outstanding. We are truly thankful for that. In a theological sense, it's a very important word. God's plan and salvation can only be done through God alone. It doesn't take place because you have faith. God has given you faith because he has already planned to give you salvation. In verse 39, "And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that He has given me, but raise it up on the last day." This is God's will and Jesus Christ came for this will. He once again confirms this in verse 40. "For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day." In verse 39, it says, "the will of him who sent me". In verse 40, "the one who believes in the Son". It means the same. It means that they will be raised up on the last day. There are many contents within this from a theological perspective. The worldly theology that we all know is from the Bible. Also, theology has been made according to the standards of God. Those who read the Word of God are able to have a sense of theology within them. He states that this can only take place within Christ alone. That is why the Lord says, "I am the Bread of Life who has come from above." He says that he is the true bread that has come from heaven. The manna itself was important. For 40 years, if they did not have manna from heaven, they would have all been put to death. But yet, that was not the truth. It was merely a process to explain the truth. The miracles of the five loaves and two fish are very precious. Jesus prayed during the time of the five loaves and two fish to which many were fed. That is the work of God. That is the miracle of God to which that is the bread of God, but yet that was not the truth. The true Bread of Life was Jesus Christ. All of this portrays the sign of Christ. It ended with physical hunger, but yet for Jesus that was not the case. So then what must you do? You must be able to first and foremost confirm if the Bread of life is true to you. You must be able to first confirm it and then stand as a witness. You must be able to get a taste of it and experience this bread. You will come to see that this is the truth. You must be able to confirm that this is the bread that gives you life, this is the bread that revives you. First and foremost you will be able to gain eternal life, but not only that, your entire life will be revived. If you continuously enjoy and hold to this Bread of Life your life, your thoughts, and your heart will all be saved and revived. For those who question, why is my life like this? You must be able to eat this bread to which God will revive your life. This is the eternal and complete answer, there is no other answer like this in this world. All you have to do is do it. God never said do you best, God simply said to do it. Works will arise. All you have to do is hold to this as the living Bread of Life. Whoever it may be, they will be saved and revived. Regardless of what may arise, they will be revived and saved. There will be times that overturning will take place to which all will be a miracle. That is why Jesus said that he is the Bread of Life and has come to give life. Whoever gains this bread, will all live. This is the absolute bread. That is why it will undoubtedly take place. Whoever holds to this bread will all be saved and revived. They will absolutely be saved and revived. For those who desire to save their life, may you eat this bread. May you eat this bread every single day, whether it takes place or not. Especially for the young adults and the remnants, may you eat this every single day, and then later on in life, you will come to see that this was the truth. There will be no failure for he is God and this is God's promise. There is no failure for God. It is only determined by whether you do it or not. There is nothing that is difficult to do. You must eat this bread every single day. What does that mean? It means for you to confess Christ every single day. The confession of Christ is the method for eating the bread every day. All you have to do is hold on to only Christ. You will undoubtedly be on the journey of re-laying Christ. You don't even have to put in the effort. All you have to do is hold on to Christ and you will be on the journey of following Christ. May you confess today that Jesus is your Christ, the covenant to all. When you do that you will be able to receive much grace. Even though you give your own prayer topics this will be of more grace to you. You will be able to receive much grace as you are able to confess this along with the scriptures that correlate with Christ to the extent that all the forces of darkness will crumble at that very moment. One day you will come to see as you continuously do this, that you are already within the covenantal journey. As years pass by you will see that you are becoming a person of God. Everything has no choice but to take place for you. In the past, you were so anxious because God had not answered your prayers, but that has completely diminished. That is the covenant. It is what we call the complete covenant. You don't need anything else, may you confirm, hold, and confess it. They simply followed after the ark of the covenant. The Israelites did nothing in the Jordan River. That is why all you have to do is follow the covenant, for God will take care of everything else. Did they cast out all of the water from the Jordan River? They did not, so how grateful must they be that they just simply needed to follow after the ark of the covenant. It does not matter whether you are chasing after it or not. It only matters in the fact that you are confessing it even at home. There may be those that aren't able to do this so well. May you not be discouraged, but stake your life to this. And God will never betray you. God says that he will never lose a single soul. He says, "whoever comes to me and believes in me, I will accept them." When you hold onto Christ and go before God, He will allow you to hold onto Christ as your covenant. So may you confirm to yourself, "Am I within the covenant journey?" You may be in the incorrect path or you may be in the spiritual state in which you want to receive answers. And that is alright. It is okay if you lack the heart to devote yourself. If you are holding onto Christ as your covenant, simply to receive answers, you must still do so because that is the time schedule God has given to you. As you continue to receive answers from Him, your thoughts will change as well. That is when you just need to do according to what He gives to you. We conclude that you are in the middle of religion and the gospel if you are devoting yourself to receive answers, holding onto and confessing Christ for your own gain. So if you don't have the heart to devote your life to God, then just hold onto Christ and receive answers from Him. But there are times in which some people don't want to confess Christ. Then just simply, don't. You already received salvation, so just because you don't confess Christ doesn't mean that He will take away that salvation from you. And as you continue to listen to the Word of God, if you do not have the heart to confess Christ, then let it be so. If that means that you won't come to worship, then stay at home. Satan always comes to attack and plow into your thoughts to make you think that you need to do something. There may be some that desire for answers, but don't pray to God. Then don't pray. Even for some nonbelievers, they don't pray to God but receive answers. Just say one sentence, "God, give me answers." That is your complete prayer. And if you do not remember this, then simply don't pray and live your life. Then one day, by God's time schedule, you will realize that you need to pray. The result of the Bible is that you must hold to Jesus Christ as the covenant. As you continue to listen to God's Word, God will allow you to hold to this as your answer. This is the perfect and complete answer of God. If there is any hindrance to this, God put it to death. Whether it is the people, circumstance, or environment, if it hindered this, then it was discarded. This is the covenant journey, to the extent in which it has the authority to do all of that. It is truly amazing. Don't you want to try this? The start of that is to hold onto Jesus as your covenant. We must eat and enjoy living the life of eating the daily bread of life from heaven. May you eat this bread of life everyday. Then you will be in victory and conquest everyday.

2. 237 Movement Mission

We must be able to partake in the 237 movement, and it is none other than eating the bread of life. There are many contents in the Bible that explain evangelism and strategies. But we must be able to partake in the fundamental gospel movement. Then, we will be able to save many people. Rightfully, they will be able to stand as a witness because they themselves have been saved. There is never a case in which it won't take place or in which you will fail. All you have to do is partake in this movement. Everything else will be in God's hand to which there is nothing for you to worry about. This is the absolute authority in which nobody could hinder or block. For those who hindered or blocked this movement, God discarded them. Anyone, even the environment or animals, were discarded and cast away by God. Think about the Exodus. That is the fore-shadow of our salvation. On the night they placed the blood on their doorpost, all the forces of darkness crumbled. When they placed this covenantal blood on their doorpost, they were all liberated and free from the curses. They also came out with great possessions. Even in the time of the wilderness, God poured the manna from heaven and, not only that, but the people always had victory in their battles. They ate manna from above. Not only that, but they were able to drink water from rocks. And at night, there were flocks of quail that they ate. They were able to walk across dry land like when they crossed the Jordan River and Red Sea. The Jericho wall had no choice but to crumble on its own when they simply shouted. They didn't lay a single finger on it. Even at the time against the Ammorites, the sun did not go down because they prayed, and they were able to conquer them. This is God's passion for the gospel and gospel movement. It is unchanging. No one can block it, and it's absolute. This is for us as well. Everything that may seem complicated for you is complicated because you don't live like this. Isn't that so? Even today's message is entitled "The Bread of Life." So, God is asking you, "Do you want to live? Do you want to restore all that has crumbled in your life? Do you want to cast away all the darkness hindering and working upon you?" That's what He is asking you at this very moment. God says, "Then, you must eat the bread of life." All you have to do is continuously eat the bread of life. If you're not, may you eat it. With that alone, everything is finished. If you continuously eat the bread of life, God will give you answers. If you truly eat the bread of life, miracles will arise in your life. And there's no reason for you to fervently pray to God. Just simply do this. What is your true prayer? What is the content for your prayer of 24 hours? It is to partake within the gospel movement. That is your true prayer. That's why, for 24 hours, you must do this. Your everlasting covenant is Christ and 237. For you to follow after this covenant is the covenant journey. We have received this tremendous covenant from our forefathers and ancestors. May you firmly hold onto this baton. May this blessing be upon you all. Even today, may you eat this bread of life. May you eat it every day. You might not eat it well, but continuously eat it. May you end everything with this bread of life. May this blessing be upon you.
