Rome

Acts 23:1-11

Rome was Paul's covenant. He received the commission to save the Gentiles, kings, and the children of Israel, but the most important covenant was to save the Gentiles and partake in world evangelization. That is why he had to go to Rome. It is the same for you even now. You must save America. There are many hidden disciples in the church of America that you must testify the Gospel. This is God's greatest desire of this age.

1. All incidents and events were a process to receive the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
 - 1) The reason Paul became a prisoner.
 - 2) It was for the sake of the Gospel movement in prison.
 - 3) It was in the prison of Philippi.
 - 4) The Gospel door was shut for Asia.
 - 5) It all began through the incident in Damascus city.

2. Wherever he went, there were disciples.
 - 1) It was the work of God.
 - 2) Reason - He had the accurate Gospel, personal covenant, connected with God, and devoted himself.
 - 3) He was the one who had the content. - He was capable of nurturing the disciples. - He had the assurance, enjoyment and evidence of the Gospel.
 - 4) He was the one who remained, the pilgrim, and the conqueror.

3. Paul who understood Rome.
 - 1) He knew the spiritual importance of Rome. - World evangelization and Rome.
 - 2) He was the one who had the great picture of God's desire. - He had the commission, enjoyment, and evidence.
 - 3) Many Gentile disciples - Rome
 - 4) The greatest elite evangelism

4. Conclusion
 - 1) The one who has their spiritual eyes opened to God's desire - The one who enjoys the covenant.
 - 2) The one who knows the importance of disciples
 - 3) The one who has the answer to surpass and overcome problems - It does not matter for them at all.
