The Evangelist that Receives Answers

Acts 1:1-11

The answer that the evangelist must receive is to be attached to the disciples. Doors must continuously open, disciples be attached, and live the life of accumulating the answers of evangelism. The evangelism that will continue on to the next generation must arise for world evangelization to take place. This evangelism must take place for the church to be used like the Antioch church of this age to save America and Latin America.

1. Fundamental evangelism
