

Evangelism that Gives the Answer

Acts 3:1-10

God's covenant is the answer to mankind. God knows everything, so He gave what is needed to mankind. It is the accurate, complete, and eternal answer. Everyone must live by this answer. It is their life's fate and destiny. People face problems because they do not live according to the answer. Works are bound to arise when your spiritual eyes are open.

1. Lame beggar who sat in front of the temple called Beautiful Gate

- 1) He was seized by fate and destiny. - Since birth
- 2) His life was on the wrong path. - Fundamental problem
- 3) A religious believer who did not know the answer
- 4) The witness who had the Gospel.

2. The importance of one person

- 1) Always the minority
- 2) Centered on the disciples - Chosen first
- 3) The person that is appointed. - The one who is prepared. - The one that God desires.
- 4) Evangelism is the work that God does. - The things pertaining to God's kingdom

3. The one who knows the Gospel and evangelism

- 1) They will have conquest.
- 2) They can save whoever.
- 3) The one who has the answer to raise the disciples
- 4) The future will be a masterpiece.

4. Conclusion

- 1) The life that is centered on the Word. - If you continue, you will receive the Word and your spiritual eyes will open.
- 2) The personal time to enjoy the Gospel - You must think and organize it.
- 3) You must hold to the absolute plan. - God's will is unchanging.