The Person to Change the Stream

1 Corinthians 4:1-5

Ministry does not end with ministry. Ministry changes the person's fate and destiny and changes the stream of their lives. This must first take place to the ministers and to the end of the region. The one that changes the stream of the region are the spiritual commander. The representative figures are Lydia, Jason, Priscilla, Aquila, Onesimus and more. Timothy and Silas are used as the ministers after Paul departed and they became a great help to the spiritual commander of that age.
