Biblical Church Officers

Romans 16:1-5

The Bible is the standard. The Bible is the standard measure to your faith, walk of faith, life, and thoughts. The church officers have been selected by God for the sake of His kingdom. They are the background and pillars for the church. Not only that, the church officers have a great mission of world evangelization. May all the church officers in our church be used as important figures to save America and South America.
